

NotFound Specification

Description

The NotFound component will simply be a page that appears when users navigate to routes not handled by the client. The NotFound component will provide a button to redirect the user back to the dashboard.

Usage

To use the NotFound component simply put it as the last child under a switch component with the path `'*'`.

Subcomponents

The NotFound component has no subcomponents

Required State

The NotFound component does not require any state

Required Props

The NotFound component does not require any props